What's new in Ridge Racer™ Unbounded - Ridge Racer™ 7 Machine Pack:

/Most Wanted Fish Gary the Gull (Gary McCartney) is a fictional character on the CBS television series The Odd Couple. Played by actor Gary Burghoff, Gary is a sadistic, socially dysfunctional man who lives at the apartment complex in which the two men reside. The defining characteristic of Gary's personality is his sadism towards others as well as his total lack of empathy. Originally a salesman for a baby food company, Gary has suffered a series of life traumas that have taken their toll on his life and character, without his realizing the physical and mental scars they have left him with. Gary compensates for his painful past with an incessant, overbearing masculinity, as well as a sharp sense of humor, formidable (if black-humored) intellect, and a love of weaponry. Although Gary is often portrayed as mad, he actually has a violent streak. Throughout the series, he has attempted to turn an accomplice of Oscar's, Kitty Carlisle (Elizabeth Daily), against her boyfriend by warning Kitty that he has an unusual fetish for women with large breasts, causing Kitty, and eventually Oscar to believe that Gary is gay. Biography Gary's first appearance on the show was in the season one finale The Return of the Odd Couple in 1984. The character of Gary was created by producer Garry Marshall, who has described him as a "very complicated character" and "a rather evil individual." It is revealed in the second-season finale, the season three premiere, a subplot of the season three episode, as well as several flashback episodes during the second season, that Gary is a Vietnam War veteran who suffered brutal combat injuries while serving in the Army. In one flashback, film footage is shown of American troops trying to rescue a wounded comrade that was under fire from Gary's military unit, which, in turn, causes Gary to suffer a breakdown. Then, once Gary sees a sexy, high-cheekbone, 200-pound woman in skimpy underwear, he starts hitting himself on the head, trying to humiliate himself. Gary is great-grandfather to two adopted children named Tom and Lori. His close friend, the often-injured Dr. Sportello, is Gary's only real friend in the episode "Strange Faces". Gary is good friends with Oscar and Felix, who call him "Geri" (he is often confused with his gay friend, Marty Kaan) and have a close friendship with each other. When Felix is
