> "The game totally blew me away!" > "I'm here! I'm here! I'm here!" > "Tons of fun and interesting elements... lots of content!" > "If you play RPGs, you should check this out!" > "Atmospheric gameplay that surpasses its genre" > "Your heart is gonna melt" --- Advertisement --- Hello, this is PhantasmCast. We will be looking at the new fantasy action RPG set in the Lands Between, Kiseki, being released worldwide on September 1. Developed by From Software and published by Bandai Namco Games, Kiseki is coming to PC, PlayStation 4, and Xbox One. The basics Gameplay The main story revolves around a high school senior named Locke, who goes to a magical fantasy world called the Lands Between. The world consists of a great many people looking for the power of the four Elden Ring Serial Keys, which are artifacts produced from the deeds of heroes in the past. The main character, Locke, possesses the Elden Ring that was given to him by his father. As the story goes on, you will take on various classes, each with their own skill set. In the beginning, Locke becomes a Magic Knight, but as you progress through the story, you can transform into different classes, such as a Ninja, a Warrior, and a Lancer. As you progress through the story, the mechanics behind how classes are played change. For example, while you are starting out as a Magic Knight, you will gain more experience points as a fighter. However, as you progress in the game, you can level up into a special class that gives you a different bonus depending on the class and weapon equipped. Therefore, you can dual-class in order to equip a different weapon. Development Image courtesy of Bandai Namco Kiseki takes place in the Lands Between, a beautiful world full of fantasy creatures, stars, and a demon king. Each region in the world is connected with other areas, such as the land of the dark elves. The continent of Limdor is located in the continent's north, and you can travel to all the areas by exploring them, either with a fast-travel option or through the areas' unique routes. To do this, you'll need to explore the world. Within the numerous different areas are monsters of all bff6bb2d33
