Field of the Invention The present invention relates to a polycrystalline silicon thin film employed in a semiconductor device, a solar cell, an X-ray detector, etc., a method of forming the same, and a method of manufacturing a semiconductor device using the same. 2. Description of the Related Art Thin films of polycrystalline silicon have been used in semiconductor devices such as a semiconductor memory, a transistor, etc., a solar cell, an X-ray detector, an image detector, etc., on the basis of their excellent physical properties and high electron mobility. For example, Japanese Unexamined Patent Application Publication No. 2002-264027 discloses a thin film of polycrystalline silicon that is formed to have a fine grain structure, a process of forming the same, and a polycrystalline silicon thin film and a method of manufacturing a semiconductor device using the same.Q:

ASP.NET: dynamic web part gallery thumbnail configuration I am trying to configure the gallery web part in an asp.net application but the gallery web part doesn't appear on the screen. I have added the ribbon in the toolbox under Manage Web Part >> Customized >> Select the gallery web part >> Options >> Display: Insert. If I use the default position, the gallery web part appears on the screen. Is there a problem about the position? I have also tried to align to the right, to the left, and to the top. A: You can use the Parameters of the ODataGetListWebPart property to specify a predefined position. You have many predefined positions here (see the Microsoft.SharePoint.webparts namespace): Microsoft.SharePoint.WebPartPages.DataFormWebPart.GetDataFormWebPartParameters(string category, string webPartName, string webPartXml, string title, string description, string helpText, bool selected, string datasourceUri, string editUri, string oDataWebUrl, bool visible, string displayOrder, bool showWebPart
